What,
Where, and
When
Was Lindisfarne?

Author

As the eyewitnesses of Jesus' ministry began to pass away, it became needful to write down the events of Jesus' life from an apostolic source

- ✱ - written in Rome, from the remembrances of the apostle Peter, as his death drew near (2 Peter 1.14)
- ✱ - Peter relayed to Mark what he had experienced walking with Jesus for 3 years
- ✱ - Testimony of Papias (c. A.D. 120) cited by Eusebius, who says of Mark:
 - ✱ - he was not an eyewitness, but had an earnest desire not to misrepresent anything
 - ✱ - he was the writer for Peter and recorded Peter's words
- ✱ - recognized by many fathers from the earliest days of the church
- ✱ - Outline of Mark's Gospel mirrors Peter's sermon in Acts 10.34-43

Author

Who was Mark?

- * - John Mark, companion of Paul and Barnabas on Paul's 1st missionary journey (Acts 12.25 LSB)
- * - He was the cause of division between Paul and Barnabas. They were later reconciled.
- * - His mother was Mary of Jerusalem, who hosted gatherings of believers in her house (Acts 12:12)
- * - In 1 Peter 5:13, Peter calls him "my son," in 1st Peter 5.13 suggesting a close spiritual relationship.
- * - He served as Peter's interpreter and wrote down his recollections of Jesus, forming the basis of the Gospel.

Audience and Date

- * - primary audience was the Gentiles, especially Romans
- * - but also for all the people groups throughout the Roman Empire.
- * - Most likely the earliest of all the Gospels, c. AD 60
- * - There are many Latinisms, written from Rome, where Peter was soon to be martyred
 - * - Very Frequent use of καί εὐθύς ("and immediately") resembling Latin "et statim" giving a brisk, action-oriented style characteristic of Roman rhetoric.
 - * - Transliteration of Roman names and titles (e.g. Pilatus, Herodes Antipas, Caesar).

Audience and Date

Examples of Latinisms

✱ - κεντυρίων (kentyriōn) – centurion - Latin origin: centurio (e.g. 'century')

Other Gospels use the Greek form ἑκατόνταρχος (hekatontarchos).

Mark uses the Latin military term for a Roman officer in charge of 100 soldiers.

✱ - λεγεών (legion) – legion - Latin origin: legio

Roman military unit of several thousand soldiers. The “Legion” of demons in the Gerasene demoniac story evokes Roman power imagery.

✱ - πραιτώριον (praitōrion) – praetorium - Latin origin: praetorium

Official residence or headquarters of the Roman governor (praetor).

Structure

- * - Simpler and less tightly structured than Matthew
- * - Reads like an action-packed, fast-moving, dramatic narrative, a highlight reel
- * - If Matthew focuses on the words of Jesus, Mark focuses on His deeds
- * - Recounts little extended teaching of Jesus like Matthew does
- * - shortest Gospel - moves the quickly through the ministry of Jesus.
- * - εὐθύς (euthus) "immediately" occurs 42 times, to keep the action moving

Structure

- ✱ - Mark is writing the first Gospel and likely feels the pressure of getting events written so that the good news of Jesus will be preserved.
- ✱ - Rather than recounting large blocks of teaching and other things, Mark moves the story along.
- ✱ - This rapid pace is also helpful in keeping the attention of the reader / hearing
- ✱ - It's like an exciting story, a "page-turner"

Structure

Outline

Part 1 — The Powerful Ministry of Jesus (1.1-8.26)

Part 2 — The Suffering Ministry of Jesus (8:27–16:20)

Transition :

And He continued asking them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered and said to Him,

“You are the Christ.” And He warned them to tell no one about Him. (8:29-30)

the Gospel moves forward from here into Part 2 with Jesus facing increasing hostility leading up to the crucifixion.

Structure

The Endings of Mark

Earliest manuscripts - end at 16.8

"And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment were gripping them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid. (Mark 16:8)"

The Shorter Ending

"But they reported briefly to Peter and those with him all that they had been told. And after this, Jesus himself sent out by means of them, from east to west, the sacred and imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation."

- ✱ - Only found in a few very late manuscripts (8th century and later)
- ✱ - Practically no one considers this ending to be original
- ✱ - Included in only a very few English translations, always in brackets

Structure

The Endings of Mark

The Longer Ending (16.9.20)

- * -Codex Alexandrinus (c. AD 400–440) has the longer ending without any notation.
- * - Other manuscript evidence from the same time and later
- * - Writings of church fathers Irenaeus and Tatian show the longer ending was in circulation by the late 2nd century
- * - Practically no modern scholars consider it original
- * - Most translations still include it, though usually bracketed or commented to indicate that it is not part of the original text

Structure

The Endings of Mark

A Likely Solution to this Problem

- ✱ - The original ending is lost
- ✱ - Well-meaning scribes constructed the longer ending, using material from the other 3 gospels
- ✱ - This ending agrees with the other gospels, and nothing in it contradicts apostolic teaching
- ✱ - "Amending" the text happens elsewhere, especially in the Byzantine text type, e.g. The Lord's Prayer in Luke 11.2-5 is made to match the form in Matthew 6.9-13

The Takeaways

- ✱ - Be aware of the issue - don't try to avoid it if someone brings it up
- ✱ - Know that in no way does it change or compromise the Gospel proclamation
- ✱ - It is not an essential matter, and should not be a cause for division or contention

Themes

The Gospel of God

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (Mark 1:1)

✱ It is to be preached!

John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. (Mark 1:4)

Now after John had been delivered up into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, (Mark 1:14)

✱ - κηρύσσω "to proclaim as a herald" - occurs 14 times

✱ - kerygma, proclamation with authority, herald's announcement from the Imperial Palace

✱ - "charismatic" is subservient to "kerygmatic"

Themes

The Son of God

Confessed 3 times - each one is pivotal

By the Preacher: The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. (Mark 1:1)

By the devils: And whenever the unclean spirits were seeing Him, they would fall down before Him and cry out, saying, “You are the Son of God!” (Mark 3:11)

By the Gentile soldier: When the centurion, who was standing right in front of Him, saw the way He breathed His last, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!” (Mark 15:39)

Themes

The Son of God

Other verses showing Jesus as the Son of God

- ✳ and a voice came out of the heavens: “You are My beloved Son, in You I am well-pleased.” (Mark 1:11)
- ✳ And immediately there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, “What do we have to do with You, Jesus the Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!” (Mark 1:23-24)
- ✳ And seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him; and crying out with a loud voice, he *said, “What do I have to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? (Mark 5:6-7)

Themes

The Suffering Servant

- ✳ And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. (Mark 8:31)
- ✳ For He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise again three days later.” (Mark 9:31)
- ✳ “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and will deliver Him over to the Gentiles. And they will mock Him and spit on Him, and flog Him and kill Him, and three days later He will rise again.” (Mark 10:33-34)
- ✳ For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.” (Mark 10:45)

Themes

Discipleship

The disciples are shown with failures and weaknesses

✱ - They are hard of heart

Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were utterly amazed, for they had not gained any insight about the loaves, but their heart was hardened. (6:51-52)

✱ - They are spiritually weak

And He *came and *found them sleeping, and *said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Keep watching and praying that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." (14:37-38)

✱ - They are quite dim-witted

And He was giving orders to them, saying, "Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod." And they began to discuss with one another that they had no bread. (8:15-16)

Themes

Discipleship

Disciples give up everything else for Jesus

He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." And immediately they left their nets and followed Him. And going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. And immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went away to follow Him. (1:16-20)

And as He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting in the tax office, and He said to him, "Follow Me!" And he stood up and followed Him. (2:14)

Themes

Discipleship

Disciples give up everything else for Jesus

If anyone wishes to come after Me,
he must deny himself,
and take up his cross and follow Me.
For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it,
but whoever loses his life for My sake and the Gospel's will save it (8:34-35)
